For more information, please contact us at the Virginia Cooperative Extension – Greene County Office.

VCE brings unbiased, research-backed knowledge into local communities to promote community development. The direction of this development is based on the needs that Greene County citizens identify and prioritize. Our assistance ranges from youth leadership development and animal/crop/soil and farm business management to home gardening, entrepreneurship, community planning, food and nutrition, parenting and childcare. And much more!!

Our office is located at 10013 Spotswood Trail in Stanardsville. In the same building as the Sheriff's office and Social Services.
